Concerned About Your Next Steps?

Stop

- Calm yourself down. Take a few deep breaths.

Think

- Think through the different options that are available for you.

Do

- Have conversations with trusted adults who know you well to advise and guide you (parents, teachers, ECG Counsellor).
- Decide and act based on your options.

Managing your emotions

When you receive your results, you may experience a range of emotions.

Managing these emotions well will allow you to stay calm and make rational decisions.

Reaching out for support is a sign of strength

If you have questions about your options or are not coping well, you can reach out to trusted adults such as your parent/guardian, teacher, School Counsellor or ECG Counsellor. You can also talk to a trusted friend.

Who can we go to for ECG advice?

Supporting Your Friend

- We may each experience different emotions upon receiving the results.
- You can share your friends' joy by congratulating them.
- If your friends appear to be disappointed with their results, encourage them.
- Alert a teacher if you are worried for them.

Keep a lookout for your friends in distress. You can support them in the following ways:

- C Calm them down
Are you ok? Calm down, take some deep breaths.
7m
- H Hear them out
What happened?
51m
- E Empathise with them
I understand it can be a tough time.
I'm here for you if you want to talk.
1h
- E Encourage seeking help
Is there someone you can talk to about this issue?
1h
- R Refer to a trusted adult
Teacher, I am worried about my friend.
2h
